

Sheriff's deputies find body during welfare check

Last Updated Friday, 10 April 2009 18:52

---

On November 17th at 7:49 a.m. the Wood County Sheriff's Office received a call from the Franklin County Sheriff's Department requesting Wood County deputies to do a welfare check.

The address given was 3945 CR 4660 in Winnsboro. On arrival, the deputies found a white female, Joy Elizabeth Glasgow, dead of an apparent gunshot wound.

The body was sent away for an autopsy. There is no further information at this time and the case is under investigation.